

Senior Civil & Structural Engineer

About the Role

Prostruct Consulting is looking for a Senior Civil & Structural Engineer to lead structural design and analysis work in accordance with local codes, regulations and project requirements.

Responsibilities:

- Conversant with local codes and regulations.
- Perform Civil/Structural engineering design and analysis.
- Able to work independently as well as in a team to meet tight project timeline.
- Coordinate with external consultant and provide technical support for design.
- Prepare design report & attend meeting to resolve technical issue with external parties.
- Responsible for on-site technical / engineering / administrative matters.
- Ensure design, drawings and all other deliverables as contained in the consultancy agreements are compiled and meeting all the criteria & parameters set.

Requirements:

- A good Degree in Civil and Structural Engineering discipline, recognised by the Professional Engineers Board of Singapore.
- Preferable with min. 2 years design experience in C&S consultancy firm with civil / infrastructures / building experience.
- Well verse with engineering design to Codes, Regulations and requirements.
- Competent in common engineering design software, analytical tools and BIM software.
- Candidates with knowledge of design and analysis of structures under dynamic loading, would be advantageous.
- Good communication and interpersonal skills, ability to liaise with all levels of people.
- Self-motivated, innovative thinker and willing to take on new challenges.

Prospective Job Applicants should send their resume to contact@prostruct.com.sg